

HYMNS & VERSES

inspiration for your home and life

ABOUT THE BLOG

Hymns and Verses, the blog, began in 2012 when I was at a crossroads in my career. My love for home decor, and the discovery of decorating and DIY blogs, propelled me to start my own website.

Hymns & Verses: Inspiration for your home and life

At hymnsandverses.com you'll find decor that mixes vintage finds with new to create a fresh and unique style. I'm passionate about learning and creating, and I love to share new skills I learn and projects I complete with my readers. In addition to home decor and DIY projects, I also share gardening tips and outdoor spaces, recipes from my kitchen, and printable designs that I create for my readers.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Hi! I'm Doreen

the face behind hymnsandverses.com. I'm currently updating my Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, home with my husband, Mark. We are new empty nesters and are taking on DIY and renovation projects, both large and small, to add character to our home. My goal is to show my readers "If I can do it, so can you!"

I'm honored to have had my home featured in print by Country Sampler Magazine's Special Christmas Issue, Country Woman Magazine, and This Old House Magazine. My spaces and projects have also been featured on many online sites including Apartment Therapy, Houzz, Country Living and Better Homes and Gardens, to name a few.
